Sample Formulations Index	ix
Preface to the Sixth Edition	xix
Introduction	xxiii
Abbreviations and Approximate Solubility Descriptors	xxx
1 Laws, Regulations, Standards, and Guidelines for Compounding Practices	1
2 Compounding Ingredient Considerations	25
3 Compounding with Hazardous Drugs	69
4 Facilities, Equipment, and Supplies	91
5 Records and Record Keeping	105
6 Stability of Compounded Preparations	119
7 Pharmaceutical Compounding Calculations	129
8 Quality Control	157
9 Flavors, Sweeteners, and Colors	171
10 Preservation, Sterilization, and Depyrogenation	183
11 Powders and Granules	197
12 Capsules	217
13 Tablets	235
14 Lozenges, Troches, and Films	243

15	Suppositories and Inserts	263
16	Sticks	281
17	Solutions	293
18	Suspensions	317
19	Emulsions and Microemulsions	331
20	Foams	353
21	Ointments, Creams, and Pastes	363
22	Gels	385
23	Ophthalmic, Otic, and Nasal Preparations	405
24	Inhalation Preparations	429
25	Parenteral Preparations	439
26	Biotechnology, Nanotechnology, and Pharmacogenomics	465
27	Special Populations and Preparations	481
28	Compounding with Balsams, Silicones, and Tars	501
29	Veterinary Pharmaceuticals	529
30	Compounding for Clinical and Investigational Studies	565
31	Cosmetics for Special Populations and for Use as Vehicles	579
32	Compounding for Terrorist Attacks and Natural Disasters	597
33	Pharmaceutical Compounding Errors	619
34	Three-Dimensional Printing and Compounding	637
35	Self-Emulsifying Lipids and Hot Melt Extrusion Formulations	649
36	Clinical Pharmaceutics and Pharmaceutical Compounding	661

APPENDICES
I	Drugs and Dosage Forms Not to Be Compounded (The FDA Negative List) 681
II	Standard Operating Procedures 685
III	Specific Gravity Values of Selected Liquids 711
IV	Using Weight-Related Conversion Factors 713
V	Sodium Chloride Equivalent Values of Selected Agents 717
VI	Buffers and Buffer Solutions 725
VII	Compendial Requirements for Bacterial Endotoxins in Sterile Preparations 733
VIII	Viscosity-Increasing Agents for Aqueous and Nonaqueous Systems 747
IX	Disinfecting Agents Used in Compounding Pharmacies 753
X	NIOSH List of Hazardous Drugs in Healthcare Settings 759
	Index 763
